“ I will always be thankful for Myrna's graciousness with my daughters during the church activities she organized. Just a couple weeks ago I introduced a lady at another church to a MC1st member and said she was the 'Myrna Born' of this church and MC1st member knew exactly what I was talking about. Her spirit lives on.

“ We are so sadden as Myrna brought so much Joy to so many people and what a beautiful walk with Christ teachings in Love. My heart is aching for someone who showed nothing but Love to our family and our little daughter, Destiny Smith at First Church UMC) in Mount Clemens.

May you Rest In Peace and May God surround your family with His Love, as you did with so many. We miss you already!
