“ Mom,
I know your at peace now, but I am going to miss you terribly. I am going to miss our bingo nights, our appointments we had together, you staying with us Christmas Eve and waking up Christmas morning with us and opening presents. Taking you with me to all the birthday parties for your great grandkids, and Brooke's dance recitals! This coming year and the years ahead are going to be rough but I know you will be watching over all of us. You are our guardian Angel now. As we you were laid in your final resting place today, I knew you were Home with daddy now and all is going to be just fine. Rest in heaven momma, I love you ❤️

“ Dear Grandma,
Too many memories to name one, but I will never forget our time together when I was just a kid spending the week with you at your old house. We would enjoy the morning news, newspaper crosswords and word search, tigers on the radio, endless grill cheese and pork chops and a night full of wheel of fortune and jeopardy. Thank you for making me understand that family is everything. “Enjoy the little things in life for someday you will realize they were the BIG things.” I love you grandma. You will always be with ME and with Dave, Brooke, Trent and Nick.

“ Even though my uncle Bill and Aunt Naida lived a long ways away and we were in California I still thought about them all the time. I remember her a happy person that was always over for family get together's at my grandmothers house. She liked playing scrabble and cards with everyone and I was a little kid so I only watched. I liked her southern accent since she was from Kentucky and even my uncle Bill soon had an accent after they married. May God bless my aunt and welcome her into heaven with my uncle Bill.
