“ Nancy and I worked together in the office at TCF in Lapeer. One of the things I remember most was how she talked so affectionately about her family. She shared her joy with us when the grandbabies were born. I'm sorry to have missed her memorial.

“ There are so many memories i don't know where to start.... My favorite times of my childhood were when we would go to either of her and Great Grandpa Beyer's houses.... My most favorite memory I have of her and when I felt a true connection was when we went to the Port Hope cabin.. And it was cold and the lake was frozen and 18 ft back from the shore ... she took me out into where the water would normally be up to my chest and we were looking through the rocks and we found a Trillabyte fossil!!! I felt like i made this humungous discovery and she went along with it!! :) This is kinda what we did at lunch on Sunday... :) RIP Great Grandma I love you!!!

“ My world is off kilter without her here...she always helped me to think out of the box and tried to see the good in everyone. Even when there was little there. She taught me the best EVER dinner roll recipe. She 'saved' me a long time ago when my world was falling down and always was there to help me hold it up. I am a better person woman wife mother and grandmother because of her.....I miss you "" Mom !! " I love you.

“ What a privilege and blessing to have Nancy as a sister and friend. God created her with such a loving, kind, and compassionate heart. She cherished her family and friends. She was always so happy for you when things were going well, and sought to love, support, and help when there were problems.

We had so much fun at family events, playing scrabble, having breakfast at Al's, shopping and having lunch in Port Huron, and so much more.

She loved and trusted her Lord, and it is His love in her that made her the person she was. We would do well to model our lives after hers - loving and supporting each other and loving and trusting the Lord in all situations. Though our hearts are grieving, we are happy for her to be home in Heaven, and free of the challenges of this life. I'm sure she will meet us with open arms when we meet her there.

“ There are so many things that I will miss about Nancy. She was a good listener. She would listen to my troubles, real or imagined, and only give advice if I asked. Her advice was always sound. I should have asked more often. I'll miss all the things we did together, especially shopping and going for lunch. I'll miss the times when we three sisters were together at Al's for breakfast. I'll miss watching her have fun even when her body was giving her trouble. She didn't let it stand in the way of enjoying life. What a good example. I'll miss watching her eyes shine with pride when she talked about her children and grandchildren. I'll miss staying overnight after she moved to Port Huron. It was fun to be together and have time for a lot of "girl talk". There are many more things I will miss about Nancy. She was a wonderful sister and friend.

“ Grandma Nancy your life of flesh and bone has passed, but your soul has gone on to eternity with our Heavenly Father. You will be missed by those of us left behind, but there is a peace that you will no longer fight for breathe again or know pain & suffering. That voice in my ear heard, " Well done my good and faithful servant." We love you and will have lots to catch up with someday when we're together again <3

“ Gramma Nancy was someone who taught me grace. I don't mean the prayer before dinner :)), I mean the true meaning of what it is to have grace. She lived her life in service to her Lord and in caring for others. She was a wonderful Mom to my own mother, so accepting and loving and an awesome grandmother to my siblings and myself, as well as our spouses and eventually her great-grandchildren. She never shied from the differences in people but rather clung to the commonalities and chose to see the good in all she met. She had an infectious laugh and a great sense of humor that she was happy to share. Though I never shared her love of shopping, I did enjoy the time that we spent doing something she so obviously enjoyed. I loved watching her with my grandfather and the way they lit up a room with the glow of their love for one another. Though my heart is heavy with my own earthly sadness, at the same time I am truly happy that she has finally joined her Father and her "true love" once again. Heaven just became a little brighter with her arrival. Until we meet again Gramma, I love you and we all love you and will miss your face.

“ Nancy, I will always remember the day we came to your house & you took us downstairs to see Bob's train display. Don was like a little kid in a candy shop! He was so happy when I "let" him buy as many trains as he wanted. I am happy for you that your days of pain & your breathing struggles are finally over & you are experiencing PERFECT peace & joy in Heaven with our Lord! We will miss you but know we will see you again when we join you someday in Heaven. This is not "good-bye", just "see 'ya later"!

“ Nancy was one of the world's best sisters. Whenever we shopped, she always knew all the sales and couldn't understand why I didn't. :) With our other sister, Carol, we had so many wonderful times. We'll miss her.
