

Naomi G. Clements

April 8, 2009 - June 6, 2023

Naomi Grace Clements, a beloved daughter, sister, and friend, went home to be with Jesus on June 6th, 2023, at the age of 14.

Born on April 8th, 2009, to her parents Matthew “Duke” and Anne Clements, she was the couple's fifth child out of six, and of which, she was the only girl. Following the passing of her mother, Anne, Naomi's father was eventually remarried to Naomi's “bonus mom”, Dawn Clements. This made Naomi one of the couple's ten children. She brought joy, love, and inspiration to all fortunate enough to have known her.

Naomi's unwavering faith in Jesus Christ defined her journey and brought hope to the lives of those around her. She found her strength, hope, and joy in Jesus as He guided her through every challenge she faced. Her profound relationship with Jesus is a testament to her remarkable spirit and unwavering character.

Dance was a passion that brought boundless joy to Naomi's life. For over two years, she dedicated herself to the art of dance, captivating and inspiring audiences with her infectious enthusiasm. Her passion for dance is further evidence of her free spirit and her ability to find joy in every rhythm and beat.

Naomi's remarkable story, her courageous battle with cancer, and her unyielding faith, have inspired hundreds. Her strength in the face of adversity, and her unwavering belief in the power of Christ serve as a beacon of hope for all. Her journey touched the lives of many, leaving an imprint on everyone she had come in contact with.

As we say "see you later" to Naomi, please remember the light she brought into our lives and the legacy she leaves behind. May her memory serve as a reminder of the power of faith, creativity, and love. Naomi will be dearly missed, but we know she has been restored in Heaven, and is dancing with Jesus.

She is survived by her parents, Mathew "Duke" and Dawn Clements. siblings; Andrew Clements, Elijah Clements, Daniel Clements, Micah Clements, Gabriel Clements, Matthew Patrick, Jake Patrick, Abigail Patrick, and Lillian Parson, grandmothers; Ruth Clements and Marguerite Borgman, grandfather, Phillip Newman, aunts and uncles; Norman Clements, Cindy and Scott Blackley, Christine and Matt Hatfield, and Kenny and Kathy Mansell, along with several cousins.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Anne Clements, grandmother, Charlene Newman and grandfathers; Andrew Borgman and Ronald Clements. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

Memorial contributions can be made to: St. Baldrick's Foundation or Check 6 Organization.

Arrangements in care of Jowett Funeral Home - Port Huron.

“ I have known the family for many years. Duke and Anne worked for me at Redeemer Child Care Center. We had many great times together. I feel so bad for Duke and Dawn and the family. We all know that Naomi has gone to join Anne and both are free from pain. They are missed. Deepest sympathy to the whole family. Blessings to you all.

“ I knew Duke and his family years ago when we attended New Covenant in Bowie, Md. our families were very close. However our move to California seperated us.

Years later we came back to Maryland and back in touch with Duke! Plus we got to meet Anne.

Our next meeting was at Anne's funeral! We entered the Church seeing Duke carrying Naomi up the aisle to meet us! Naomi was clinging to Dukes neck and Im pretty sure he knew at that point Naomi had brain cancer!!

I seriously know no other man who would still honor God all the days of his life after all that! But he had and still walks in the way he should go!! Strong strong Duke and Dawn and when you've done it all STAND STROBG!!
