

Nicholas D. Riggs

July 9, 1989 - December 18, 2025

Nicholas Riggs, of Port Huron, Michigan, passed away on December 18, 2025, at the age of 36. He was born on July 9, 1989, at Dickson County Memorial Hospital in Iron Mountain, Michigan.

Nicholas grew up in Niles, Michigan and attended Niles High School, graduating with honors in 2007. He later went on to work mainly in hospitality, but later landed a job at DHL, where he formed many lasting friendships and touched the lives of those around him.

Outside of work, Nicholas had a deep passion for playing the guitar, singing, writing music, and cooking. He was also famously known for being one of the most hilarious people you could ever meet, bringing laughter wherever he went.

Nicholas is survived by his mother, Tamara "Riggs" Sughayer, his siblings, Sydnee Sughayer, Hennah Sughayer, and Naseem Sughayer, as well as many other family members.

He is also survived by his paternal family including his grandparents Ron and Mary Ann Milbrath, his aunts and uncles; Jack (Tammy) Milbrath, Gini (Mark) Ehnis, Shelly (Bruce) Broden, his half siblings Phil (Hailee) Milbrath, Vanessa (Harry) Larson, his nieces and nephew Harper and Eden Larson and Luke Milbrath, and numerous cousins.

Nicholas is preceded in death by his father Jon Milbrath.

He will be remembered for his infectious laughter, kind heart, and the joy he brought to everyone who knew him. He was deeply loved and will be forever greatly missed.

A celebration of life for Nicholas will be held during the third weekend of March. The time and location are to be determined and will be announced on Facebook during the first week of February.
