“ Noreen, "Billy" as I called her. I was a second generation to have my taxes done by her and then my Son was a 3rd. I'm not sure if my Grandmother went to her but that would have been 4 generation's. Billy was such a great Woman!! She was friendly, nice, she let me and my late wife smoke in her office. When my Wife passed away and I was doing my taxes alone I broke down crying and She told me just take your time!! I will miss her so so much even though I only seen her once a year!! Greg, I feel your pain!!

“ Greg we are so sorry for the loss of your mother. Noreen Bill will truly be missed by my family ! She was definitely one special lady. She was one who always did for, and gave to others . She found it hard to let people do for her .She had one of the biggest hearts ever. We were blessed to have her in our life. Noreen loved having Holiday's at her house she loved cooking huge meals and being around people . She made the best pierogies . If you were hungry when you got up from her table , it was definitely your own fault

Noreen was a huge animal lover . Always taking in any animal who needed a home . She loved her cats and they loved her just as much . She really loved going fishing. When she talked about going fishing her eyes would light up .

She will truly be missed by myself and my family. I know she is now with the love of her life,Rick God Bless
