“ I remember grandpas stories
He had so many and he just loved to talk which was great since I can never stop talking lol every time I saw him that's what we would just talk about life and family
We love you grandpa

“ My first memory I remember of grandpa was dancing on his toes once as a little girl. We visited almost every holiday as a kid. We always had deserts after dinner, is another memory. It was just always so funny when he couldn't have as much as he wanted because he couldn't have too many sweets and just how he reacted to anything really.. I'll forever miss grandpa all of will!💕💕 “ Wish we could be there in Michigan for you Norm and family like you were always here in New Hampshire for us. Norm and Irene always came for whatever family occasion, happy or sad. Gonna miss that smile and good humor, as well as those hugs and calling him my big brother. Love you. Lucille & Warren

“ The best grandpa anyone could have had! I remember him always shaking his fist at me saying, “ to the moon, Alice” and promising me my pink Jeep ❤️ I loved listening to all of his stories about his old jobs and life. He would always tell me he was trying to stay out of trouble but I doubt it — driving grandma nuts on purpose! Hah. I love him and will forever miss my selfie buddy ❤️❤️

“ Norm was more than an in law he was like a Dad to me over 35yrs ago he welcomed me into the family with open loving arms & I've been so blessed to have him. I can't thank him enough for raising my husband (Richard) the way he did cuz he is following in his footsteps.

Thank you Dad for so many great memories that I will cherish for the rest of my life. Until we meet at the golden gate watch over us & visit often.

I'm gonna miss you💔
