“ Dear "Aunt" Pat, I will miss everything about you, but most of all, your "real dame" attitude and that amazing laugh of yours. You were always there for my mom as her friend and for me as my "other mother". There will ever only be one "Bubbles", that's for sure, and everyone who knew you knew it!

Bruce, Jan, Tiger, and families, we are so sad for your loss, but in the Great McKenzie Tradition, we raise a glass of Single Malt Scotch to One Amazing Woman and One Great Dame, Pat Bubbles McKenzie!

*All our love,

Bubbles, we saw your son Johnny Tiger Mac last night and he misses you so. Don't think I've ever quite seen him that sad, so grievous. But he lives for the memories of his mother and very good friend. You entered and left this world on the same day, 89 years later, quite an accomplishment. We should all be so lucky.

Linda and I met you twice and know why you were John's best buddy, what a personality you were! You will forever be held in the highest regard.

Our sympathies to John and his family.

With Love,

Drew and Linda Hopkins
