“ Pat and I met in school when we were 8 years old. We became close friends and remained that way. I shared every thought I had with Pat. She is a solid part of my childhood, teen years, and every day after. Pat was the closest person I could have had without a sister. She was my sister. Can't imagine my life without her. The world has lost a very special person. My deepest sympathy to her entire family but especially to her devoted husband, Chet. Another wonderful person.
