“ We loved to listen to Grandpa’s hands together, go to country music concerts, dance, go to London’s Diary, take walks, talk about his parents, his brothers and sisters, go on vacations, and play cards. He used to let myself, my sister and all my kids walk around in his cowboy boots, he taught us to soar no matter what obstacles we faced. He was the BEST grandpa in the world and we miss him.

“ Uncle Pat and Aunt Annis were two of my favorite people. They opened their home to me when I was a senior in high school and had troubles in my family . Uncle Pat loved to tease me and make me laugh. Sandy McDonald.

“ Uncle Pat was probably the hardest working man on earth. He was funny, and kind, and he loved his family so much. We will never forget the weekends up in Lake St. Helen, playing cards with Pat, Annis, and all the cousins. Taking that one last pontoon ride around the lake before it froze. We will miss you Uncle Pat. Love you.
