“ I worked with him at Kettermans in Dallas TX and we moved together to San Antonio TX. We kept in touch for the years after I even visited him in Marysville at his home. We last talked on the phone for hour and a half and then last we communicated on Facebook. Heck we even went to get a drink on night and one of the rowdy co workers we meet started a fight and Paul and I who where minding our own biz got black eyes. The coworker ran.
