“ I met my dear Sister in Law only a few times as our places we call home always seemed far away. Illinois from upper Michigan, and now, North Carolina to Michigan...made it difficult for normal visits. When I met Penny I knew from the very beginning that she was a kind, special person. She was genuine, caring, loving and honest...traits most of us wished we had.

From her family, mainly my loving wife, Laura, and all her sisters and brothers I knew that Penny lived a hard life and that all of this seems not only so wrong, but so unfair.

But...all of us... none of us... should think this way. We have to believe that Penny is now in a much better place and in the hands of GOD and finally at peace. She would want all of us to move on and get on with what we all were doing in our lives before all of us heard the news of her passing.

The last time I spoke with Penny by telephone just over a month ago...she was full of life and fun. We laughed and Laura and I had a very long conversation on everything from family, sports and current events. We all know now again that families see each other too seldom, talk to each other not enough, and sometimes just because of the lives we all live, take everyday for granted. Penny once again proves that all of us cannot continue to just exist in this world we all must be a part of it...and that the greatest thing that GOD has given us is our families.

I will forever regret that I did not get to know Penny enough but with all of our family memories I feel that I knew her very very well. She was a good person, a fine lady, who quite possibly was too good for this world.

“ Penny or as I called her mom is missed so much. The bond between her and Jason was undeniable and her marriage to Bob was a perfect example of unconditional love. Her laugh and sense of humor will be forever missed. I have so many great memories with her and my heart is hurting but I know that her strength and love is always with us and shining down on us each and every day as our own personal guardian angel. Dad and Jason you know I am always here for you and love you both from the bottom of my heart xoxo
