“ How am I supposed to think of you without tears? I haven't figured that one out yet. I've never considered the possibility that there could ever be a day without you in my life. You were always supposed to be there. How do I do this? I don't want to do this.

“ Saying goodbye to you is the hardest thing I've ever had to do. I think I'm still in denial & just don't believe you're gone, but the fact I was home & didn't physically get to see you made it so hard. I promised you the next time I was home, you were on top of my list of people to see. I know you were there, it just wasn't the same. I felt you on the plane with me on my way home and the tears came again. I know you're my special angel, and I will always look towards the stars to talk to you & remember you with such love in my heart.
I will love and miss you every day of my life and more.

“ I love & miss you Howie, everyday & always. Can't stop thinking about you & how much I am going to miss you & the fact that you won't be there for me to hug. Not a day has gone by yet without a tear for you. You will forever be in my heart, broken as it may be. You left way too soon. I wanted to see Arizona through your eyes. You were supposed to come visit me one day, now I guess I'll have to wait to go visit you. Please say Hi to your mom & Brian for me. I Love you Babe with all my heart!! Always & Forever !!

“ I will never forget the first time I "officially" met Howie. Of course I knew who he was (who didn't) from the days of hanging out at The Ritz and seeing The Catz Ass play numerous times. One night after a show I was hanging out with Pete backstage when I was formally introduced to Howie. He fussed over me non-stop, turned on the Howie charm and an instant friendship was born! I will never forget our breakfasts at the IHOP after a show, the weekends spent in Fenton at the Linden watching my beloved "Fools On Stools play or our weekly movie nights followed by an up close and personal guitar serenade. Oh, how I miss those movie nights! I will miss you forever, my friend. Save me a seat and next time I get to pick the movie. XOXO.

“ Phil,

I was shocked and sadden to hear that you have gone to a better place. You will always have a special place in my heart. Looking Back on Time..the Christmas Eves', times at Harsens Island, hanging around the house, conversations and when you practiced "Stuck in the Middle with You". Every time I hear that song memories of you come flooding back. You, Brian and Ma are finally reunited! Til we meet again...

“ I met Howie when he was the guitar player in my boyfriend's band years ago. It has been quite some time since then, but have always kept in contact over the years. Just spoke with him a few weeks ago and talked about getting together cuz it has been a while. I wish we could have made that happen already. I will miss the occasional phone calls that always started by him saying " Hey babe, how you been? " He will forever be in my heart! i will miss you!

“ Howie & I were the closest of friends. He always said he shouldve married me. When I first told him I was getting married and showed him my ring, his first words to me were "YOU BITCH"!! He wished me well & "eventually" told me I chose right. We always remained beyond close and talked weekly. I will miss this man more than anything. One year I even dressed up as Howie for Halloween. Borrowed his shirt, necklaces, bandana. Even pulled some hair off rabbit gloves to try to glue hair to my chest. He thought that was just the best. It was me that thought he was the best, And always will. There are no words to say how important he was to me.
