

Phyllis J. Doerr

August 16, 1925 - February 16, 2018

Phyllis Jean (Bradley) Doerr, age 92, passed away on February 16th, at Regency-on-the-Lake Nursing Home, Fort Gratiot. She was born August 17, 1925 in Port Huron, the daughter of Lee and Ethel (Phillips) Bradley.

Phyllis was the second of five sisters, “The Bradley Girls”, who remained close all their lives. She graduated Marysville High School and was a homemaker as well as assisting in the book work for her late husband’s construction company. Phyllis loved to dance and was a talented painter. She enjoyed gardening, travel, animals and the beach.

She is survived by two sisters, Janet Black and Eileen Walker both of Port Huron; her five children, Bonita Fike, Ypsilanti; Martin, Lexington; Steven, Traverse City; Susan Doerr Overmyer, Nova Scotia and Gary, Marine City. As well as four grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband David “Rudy”; her parents, Lee and Ethel; and two sisters, Vivian Dell and Ruth Watson.

There will be a graveside service at Hillside Cemetery, St. Clair, at a later date. The family wishes to extend their thanks and gratitude to all of those who cared for her during her last illness.

Arrangements by Jowett Funeral Home – 1634 Lapeer Avenue, Port Huron.
