“ So very sorry to learn of this news.

I had met Phyllis at a local swim club in Downey, CA. We became friends when I was probably 15 or so...I'm 71 now.

My mom had got a new job up north in San Francisco and I had to (reluctantly) move there. Life got in the way and I lost contact with Phyllis...no email, cell phones, etc. and I didn't write letters.

Recently maybe in 2017 -18 or so, I found Phyllis' info on FB. So I reached out and she confirmed that I had the right Phyllis. We traded a couple emails and I could tell she was the same friendly and sweet person that I remembered.

Again, my sincere condolences.
