“ Rachel faced this cancer like a true warrior, her attitude rarely ever wavered always POSITIVE! I know not a lot of people would have always tried their best to get through the day like she did and stayed HAPPY about it. Taking the focus off herself asking how is your day going Toni with a smile. She is now being the best angel she can be with a smile! 🥰 I loved her like a daughter and I miss her EVERY DAY. Love Tonilu, Arika’s mom 💕💕💕💕

“ Although I have never met this beautiful and courageous young woman, I knew her so well. I remember seeing a picture of Rachel on Facebook and then asked my cousin Denise Matte Zambeck who she was and how are we related. When DENISE explained just how close we were actually related, I asked to be her friend on Facebook. I learned about her terrible battle she was facing and just how strong and courageous she was. I learned that she loved to cook. I learned that she loves God! I learned that she loves her family and friends with no conditions. I saw the joy and love in her photos and a smile that could warm the hearts of everyone she met. But most of all, I saw her compassion for others and how that was more important to her than her own health issues. God allowed this beautiful angel to be amongst us for a very short time, but the love and beauty she gave to so many during her time here on earth was such a blessing. God bless you Rachel and may you forever rest in peace in the loving arms of our Lord Jesus Christ. You, your beauty and love will be forever missed. 🙏🙏🙏🙏💕💕💕💕💕💕
