“ We will remember all the fun weekends at your Grandma Jordans home. Watching you grow up over the years was great. You will be missed and the only comfort we have is that one day your loved ones will be reunited once again. May God comfort your family and may their precious memories of you give them peace...

“ You will always be my favorite hello and my hardest goodbye. Our story and our life wasn't over yet. There's not a day that has gone be that the three boys and I don't think about you. We know how much you loved and cared about us. We loved and cared about you so much as well. If love could have saved you. You would of lived forever. These were some of your favorite pictures 🥺 now they will be ours to cherish forever. This is so hard without you.
