“ Sorry to say don't remember much about Randy, I left there back in the early 70s. I lived like a few houses from them. I do remember Debbie, Cindy and the older brothers some the last time I was there to visit my mother and sister Robin I did get to see Randy's mother. My heart goes out to the family very sorry for your loss. My name is Randy Brill now living in Texas.

“ He was the most generous, stubborn, fun loving person I have ever known with the exception of my Dad. Just never make him mad because he held a grudge exactly like the leprechaun he resembled! His humor was worth a pot of gold though and his laugh was truly infectious. So says his loving sister, Debbie.

“ From my very first memory of my baby brother, Randy, he would make me laugh with his silly faces! And once he started talking his quick wit would always crack me up. I will forever miss his humor until we meet again. Rest in Peace, Randy.
