“ I met Ray back in 1981 I just now in Feb Learned of his passing in Nov I've experienced so much in life with this crazy guy there's not enough room to say it all here from all the times hot rodding in the 71 Duster 340 to fishing the Au SABLE River in a conoe to you standing up in my wedding to Shay and saying COOL out loud when she said I do I know life was hard on you a lot of times but when it came to helping people fix their cars you were there when others were not I'll never forget you and I think all who knew you like I did will agree I hope someday our paths will cross again on the other side I'll miss you for now your buddy in hunting fishing partying and hot rodding Dave Harm

LOL I can picture Ray saying COOL out loud at your wedding. That sounds just like him.
