

Raymond F. Styles

March 27, 1961 - September 9, 2022

Raymond Forrest Styles, 61 of Carsonville, passed away September 9th, 2022, surrounded by family. He was born on March 27th, 1961 in East Tawas, Michigan to James Styles Sr and Maryblanche Styles (Thomas). He attended school in both Oscoda and Carsonville, and lived in the Detroit area for many years.

Ray's lifetime was filled with many different chapters, and interesting adventures. He has always been known as a "Gentle Giant", and loved to laugh. He was an avid hunter, and enjoyed fishing. He taught his children, nieces, and nephews a love for camping, bonfires, and quality family time.

Ray worked with Greater Detroit Landscaping of Warren for many years. He was proud to have worked on the grounds of famous homes, and museums during his career. He carried his passion for landscaping with him, and continued to enjoy it as a hobby.

He is survived by his wife Gail, children Melissa (James) Boyne, Rebecca Lietka, Paige Smith, Kellie (Joseph) Ricci, Victoria (William) Poole, Robert (Roberta) Stout, and his loyal dog companion of many years, Diamond. Raymond was proud Hampaw (Grandpa) to his grandchildren Aybrionia, Dakota, Celina, Jayden, Carson, Melissa, Kyle, and Anthony, and great grandchildren Julian, Maliyah, Calvin, Eliana, and Issac. He is also survived by siblings Mary (Joseph) Groulx, Edith (Ron) Highly, Clara Lossing, Molly Lambert, and Roger Styles. He will be fondly remembered by many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

He was preceded in death by his infant son Raymond Bernard Smith, parents James and Maryblanche Styles, and brother Frank Styles, and James Styles Jr.

A Celebration of life will be held October 2nd at 2 pm, at the Carsonville Lions Club Park.

“ Ray was an awesome and inspirational person. We are all sad that he's gone, but keep smiling and remembering the memories he would rather you be happy and remember him. Just because he's gone does not mean you wont see him again. It's not goodbye it's see ya later.
