“ I remember when my friends son was dating Becky, had some fun BBQ's and she was always laughing, smiling, a kind kind heart. Then at a garage sale at her home when she was making doggy treats. I wish you all love and healing.

“ Becky was my friend in high school. She was always the same-- smiling, every time I had seen her through the years. I haven't seen her in a long time. I am very sorry for your loss. - Lisa Fox

“ Becky and I were just becoming friends. She was a great support to our family recently when our mother was ill and passed away. We had some fun times together and I was looking forward to more. It is so sad that she has passed. We are praying for God to hold her family in the palm of his hand.
