“ *Sincere Condolences to Dick's family.
We were neighbors to the Brown family on Elk St in the early fifties. I often think of the day Dick and my brother Vern thought I'd be a good target for their Red Ryder BB Gun while I was walking past the Brown house. Vern and Dick were hiding in the shed to the rear of Dick's house.
Prayers of comfort for all.

Pat and family my sympathy and prayers are with you at this time. I grew up in the same neighborhood with Dick and his sister Virginia. Fond memories of our childhood. 🙏❤️
