

Richard "Dick" Ellingwood Jr.

June 20, 1942 - December 31, 2021

Richard "Dick" G. Ellingwood, Jr., age 79, of Algonac, formerly of Chesterfield, passed away on December 31, 2021. He was born on June 20, 1942, in Rockland, Maine.

Dick enjoyed reading, especially about WWII. He enjoyed traveling to Maine and Florida, train watching, and loved cooking for his family. Dick was a retired pipefitter at SANG (Selfridge Air National Guard), former firefighter and police officer in Rockland, Maine and a former firefighter in Chesterfield.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret (Peggy) Ellingwood, children: Roberta Roswood (spouse: Cassidy Roswood), Jason Radulski, Jamie Pyszora (spouse: Mark Pyszora, Jr), Tracy Clark Brierre (spouse: Jean Brierre), Doug Clark (fiance: Angela Moore), grandchildren: Carlos Herrera (Kayla), Javier Acosta (Kindra), Courtney Chapman (Brock), Kristie Stell (Ryan), Antonio Herrera (Lisa), Nicole Clark, Dana Delahanty (Mike), Colby Clark, Scarlett Roswood-Kelly, Kaylee Pyszora, Lylah Pyszora, Elena Martinez (Cesar), Chuck Acosta (Jenna), Alexandria Brierre, Angelina Brierre, 27 great-grandchildren, and his sister, Frances (Pinkie) Drake (spouse: Tom). Services will be private.

Arrangements in care of Jowett Funeral Home - New Haven.

Tribute Wall

LB

“Dick was my brother in law and I know he loved my sister very much. He also loved his family and he took good care of his family. He will be missed by all who knew him.”

Laura Beckwith - January 05, 2022 at 07:29 PM