“ When I think of Dick, I remember his smile. I can still see him pulling candy from his pockets for the children at the church. Going to miss him.

We loved joking and laughing with Mr. Faulds. I would check out the top of his head and ask him if there were any new hairs growing up there. Dick would always chuckle and rub his head and say, "Why yes, I saw 3 new ones just the other day!"

He always asked for prayer on Wednesday nights for the CLA (Christian Law Association). He had a burden and great appreciation for the work they are doing to defend our LORD JESUS CHRIST, and his church, in a world of attacks. Please continue to pray for the CLA and for Margie and the family. Mr. Faulds was greatly loved and respected for the stand he took for GOD!
