Rich Frost was one of my oldest and dearest friends. From heading up our "Concert Security" team at Sherwood Forest through all those "Wild Wednesdays" and Sunday Concerts, he started his radio days both on and off the air at WTAC and went on to enjoy a highly successful broadcast career until failing health sadly intervened. God Bless Rich. He's headed up to wherever we all go next. By the time we get there, I'm sure he'll have it turned up loud -- way past "11."
