“Dad, I will miss you deeply. You made me the man I am. I was your little Monkey Wrench as a child in the garage working on cars, trucks, and motorcycles. You taught me to take pride in a job well done. To do it right the first time. The importance of honesty and respect. To never back down from doing what I felt was right, even if it was a ten foot high brick wall. I pray you are doing all the things you loved but left behind. I will meet up with you again on the road of happy destiny

“ A pillar of your family you were and continue to be, whether you realized it or not. Your jokes, smiles and stories will live in family lore. We are all so grateful to have had the opportunity to know you, understand you and have all felt your impact. Your great-grandchildren WILL know who you are to us, we will keep your livelihood, love for life and love for your family in Our hearts. Thank you for the opportunity to have known you and thank you for the impact that you have had on the family that I was so fortunate to marry into! When I asked my wife’s father to marry me, I also asked for your blessing and to this day I appreciate you!
