“ I had the pleasure of getting to know Richard over the past couple of months! The last time I saw him, he told me that I was going to miss him, and I told him he was going to miss me more! He told me I was right, but he was just as right! I am truly sorry for your loss Delores and family! Even though he was sick, Richard always asked me how my dad was doing and put his own feelings aside! That takes a very caring and loving person! He will never be forgotten and will always be missed!
