“ Uncle Richard livened up every family gathering with his passionate outlook on the world around him. So many events live in my memories where he and Matt would engage in heated conversations and we would just sit by listening and laughing. Not a day will go by where I don't see ketchup and not think of how much he loved it. But more so, he loved his family and God. Incredibly thankful that he left us a legacy of his children, my cousins and that he was with us for so many years. It's never easy to say goodbye, but knowing he's in heaven with those departed brings a bit of comfort. His memory will live on by sharing memories of his beautiful life.

“ I think it was in the mid 80s Uncle Richard organized for us to go and watch the Detroit fireworks together. He secured a good spot for us in Windsor near the water. It was a really nice evening having all of us together, the cousins as well as my parents. I remember how happy he was that night, awing at the fireworks and laughing. Thanks Uncle Richard! May you rest in peace. Love, Teresa
