“ Even though we stopped hanging out over the years, I'll always remember the Euchre lunches in high school and hitting the weights hard at the Weight Station. RIP old friend!

“ I'll always remember our drives to your work together, stopping for breakfast at the diner on North Ave., and getting scorched at the tanning salon when I was 17 and you suggested we stop for a quick tan ;) In hindsight, your little sister has extremely fair skin and 10 minutes in the tanner was about 9 minutes too long...but it gave us a good laugh (not dad & Katie though 😊). I wish we could have seen you more often than we did, but I have peace in knowing that we'll be able to catch up again one day ❤️

“ My best friend in the whole world lost her beautiful son on Saturday, Words cannot explain how it must feel, my heart is broken for you and your family Katie, I know how much you and Rob loved each other. He is dancing in heaven and singing with the angels. He has a perfect body and perfect health now. No more pain! I will never forget walking and talking with you about him so often. Every time we walk , I will still think of him, and I will pray for you❤️ Rob was a wonderful young man with a mother who never stopped praying for her son. They were both blessed to have such a wonderful, loving relationship. Life will never be the same, but it will still be good, because God is Good! I will never forget his handsome face and beautiful smile, his kindness and respect. How could you not love Rob!! Such a wonderful young man. We will be praying for the entire family. We will see you when we get there Rob. If we knew you had to go, we would have said goodbye. Love, Cindy S.

“ Robb, you were so talented, so creative, hard working and kind. You were the biggest animal lover on the planet. You were a momma’s boy. You never had anything bad to say about anyone. You loved to eat and work out. You were silly and loved to laugh. You were content living a low key/homebody life. You were a great story teller. You appreciated the smallest things. You were a great friend and always helpful. You were strong but sensitive. You were enthusiastic and animated. You were competative and athletic. Mostly, you loved to be loved.

Everyone has the same thing to say about you, “How could you not love Robb?” I know you are finally at peace and you deserve it. It was just too soon.

Thank you for being you! 😊🐶

“ I have never stopped nor ever will stop loving you. I prayed harder than I ever have for you except for when my father almost died twice last year. I know your heart, your struggles and strengths. I said yes. I wanted to say it twice. Forever yours, Stace this was our last photo our last conversation not too long ago. I'm so sorry please forgive me I love you thank you. 🥰💔💕😭💪🙏✌️
