“ So sorry to hear of Hark's passing. I will miss seeing him out in my driveway with his pink silk hat and jacket. He had a great laugh and a kind way about him. A friend to all and willing to help when he could. So sorry Griz, your Dad loved you so much. Rest in peace my friend, God Bless.

“ I have many good memories of "Hark" when he worked for the Marysville Schools.

He enjoyed life, put others first, and always had a good attitude.

He was especially proud of his son, and what a solid man he has grown up to be.

“ It was an honor to know you, Hark. You were a hell of a man, and you raised your son, who I consider my brother, to be a hell of a man. I'm going to miss sitting around the fire, drinking beer and talking about classic boxers and boxing matches, and, of course, Mercurys and other classic cars. Every time I think of you, I can still hear you greeting me with "Hey, Guy!", happy to see me even though you knew I was probably going to go out and get into trouble with Griz! Rest In Peace, my friend. I'll never forget your kindness and the positive, cheerful demeanor that you always had.
