“ Uncle Bob always made us laugh. He called me Stevie when I was a kid to tease his tomboy niece and I loved it. It was wonderful to see him and his siblings all together a few years ago at a get together. He will be remembered for his humor and his bigger-than-life personality. ”

“ Uncle Bobby was a fun uncle to have. He had a wonderful sense of humor and a caring side. His basement was like a kid's paradise, pool table, dart board. I liked to see how he and my dad would interact with each other, mostly by teasing. He will be missed. ”

“ My dear brother "Bobbie" as I often called him - oh how I miss you already! Although I didn't see him as often over the years because I didn't live near him. He teased me all the time growing up, such as; Nanny Goat and Nancy Gail went to jail in a pail. I was a "middle child", Rich the oldest, Bob the youngest. I have many stories to tell!

The past few months I had many phone conversations. We were able to express our love for each other - but his health got worse. Its hard to lose my brother!

Bob - "You are loved, missed, and remembered!"

Love, Nance

“ Bob Hoffman: "A wild and crazy guy"

It was 1959 and I was living in Mexico City. There was a knock on the door. Yes it was my younger brother Bob arriving unexpectedly. (Bob was not known for phoning or writing much.) A few years later picture Bob and me venturing into Lake Huron in a ten-foot sailboat, not really knowing what we were doing, feeling the waves coming from a passing lake ship. We did return safely to shore.

Please excuse my injecting a bit of humor into this solemn occasion.

Bob would have approved.
