“ I worked with Bob at Orion Test Systems for many years. I am incredibly saddened by his death. He was a very talented caring and giving person and the most reliable person I knew. Every morning without fail he would be there with coffee made and a smile to say good morning. We would chat about our families and compare notes on restaurants always saying you need to try this one or that. He was always the first to support any fundraiser and helped everyone that needed it. He was a co-worker a mentor and most of all a friend. My heart goes out to Marge and Jim. He was so happy with his family and talked about you guys on a regular basis. It was quite refreshing to see a husband that loved his wife so much. I am such a better person for having known him. Goodbye Bob You are missed...
