

Robert C. Matthews

April 11, 1943 - June 20, 2026

Robert Cecil Matthews, age 83, passed away peacefully on June 20, 2026, surrounded by his family.

Robert was the beloved husband of Nancy Matthews. Together they shared 60 years of love and cherished memories.

A hardworking and dedicated man, Robert spent much of his career as an iron worker and welder. He took great pride in his work and was respected for his skill, dependability, and strong work ethic.

Robert had a lifelong love of baseball and enjoyed playing the game in his younger years. He remained an avid fan throughout his life. He also enjoyed golfing and treasured the many rounds he played with his family and friends over the years.

Above all, Robert valued family, friendship, and the simple pleasures of life. He will be remembered for his strength, kindness, sense of humor, and the love he shared with those around him.

Robert is survived by his loving wife, Nancy Matthews, his children, grandchildren and many other family and friends who will forever cherish his memory.

A private family service and inurnment will be held at a later date.

Donations in memory of Robert Matthews may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.

The Jowett Funeral Home is privileged to serve the Matthews family.
