“ Bob was a friend of mine and Clayts for many, many years. One of my fondest memories of him was his offer to watch our dog whenever we went on vacation. A nice enough offer in itself but then we found out that he just wanted to give our dog hotdogs. Which was still okay. But then we found out he would give one to the dog and one to Bob. Too funny. We always teased him about that. I have many memories like that. I will miss you , Bob.
