“ Bobby's passing brings back many memories. No holiday (especially Thanksgiving) was complete without a trip to Uncle Bob and Aunt Mary Jo's in the then new suburb of Livonia. When the Snyder's first moved there there were almost no trees but lots of shiny new houses. There we would hang out with the cousins including Bobby. Of course watching football was part of Thanksgiving (and early on the Lions were the only game until Dallas started the tradition too). We would gather at Uncle Bob's bar even when we were too young to drink. At least some of the Snyder boys played PeeWee football but I can't remember if Bobby did. Before Nana moved from Prevost we would have Barbeques there with the cousins, Bobby among them. Very early we would go to Nana's cottage on Lake Huron but I can't remember if Bobby was old enough to be there. My condolences to the Snyder Family who have unfortunately lost two too soon.

“ I remember going to the Snyder's for holidays as a kid and listening to young Bobby, my Uncle Bob, my Dad, my other brothers and cousins "discuss" the Lions performance and other topics of the day. I can't repeat what they said here, but I recall they thought they had figured out the problem. My condolences to the whole Snyder Family who lost two great family members in too short a period.
