“ Rob was a really nice guy, and I always enjoyed our conversations at the Y. He told me once that he stopped being sad when people he loved died, and instead tried to just remember all of the good times and happy memories. It is hard not to be sad, knowing that a good person was taken from the world too soon, but I will do my best to just remember his smile and his kindness. Rob, may you rest in peace, and may your spirit reunite with all of the friends and loved ones who have gone before you.

“ Robbie, you were my first best friend. We were inseparable throughout our childhood. So many things I look back on; bike rides, ramp jumps, Van Damme movies, poking a possum with a stick.. 30 years ago I should have told you I love you like a brother, don't go. Rest in peace blood brother.
