“ It saddens me so much to hear about your beloved husband. I am so very sorry I never met him but he was family to me. I wish I could drive to visit you. You are blessed with many memories I am sure. Treasure them, and know there are so many being taken, and so many of us hurt. I love you all, even if I do not know or never met you. Keep in touch, you will always be in our thoughts and prayers. God Bless
