

Roger Jim Mainville

September 17, 1933 - February 20, 2023

It is with profound sadness that the family of Roger Jim Mainville, 89, of China Township, Michigan, moved on to his heavenly home February 20, 2023, surrounded by the beauty of his wooded property, harvesting trees. He was born September 17, 1933, in Detroit to the late Edward and Lucy Mainville.

For those of you who know him, know him.

Salt of the earth kind of guy...

He enjoyed the simple things in life, maintaining his property, his many hobbies, tooling around the USA in his motor home and rendezvous. Roger was a hard worker and always willing to lend a hand to his family and friends, but most importantly, he was a loving and caring father.

Roger is survived by his daughter, 2 sons, many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his siblings, 2 of his daughters and many friends.

Roger will be sorely missed by many, especially his children.

Roger's final wishes were to be cremated with no services following.

Cremation arrangements in care of, Jowett Funeral Home, 1634 Lapeer Avenue, Port Huron.

To view the obituary and share memories, please visit www.jowettfuneraldirectors.com

Say what you mean, mean what you say!

Tribute Wall

DC

“ I remember working on Uncle Roger's cabin years ago with my brother. Uncle Roger was that "cool guy" and always had a cool car. My other memories are when he took us to the Mt. Clemens race track back when it was still a dirt track. My condolences to the family. Sorry for your loss. Dave Clemente

Dave Clemente - May 03, 2023 at 10:09 AM

EL

“ My heart is shattered!!! I miss you Dad!! Your Loving Daughter...

Elaine - March 28, 2023 at 12:12 AM

KL

“ Mr. Mainville was definitely one of a kind. ❤️ Always there to help the neighbors & friends. He'd make sure you did it right the first time, or you don't do it at all !!! He had a big heart & small tolerance for nonsense! A book of knowledge every time you spoke with him. Mr Mainville definitely did alot of cool things in his lifetime & never let one day go by without being productive, building or traveling , collecting treasures... Praying for Elaine, Roger & Danny , that they find comfort in this huge loss & stick by each other . R.I.P Mr. Mainville❤️

kelly Lynch - March 16, 2023 at 07:38 PM

KB

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Kris Bettcher - March 02, 2023 at 02:55 AM

KB

“ This man has been in our family for years! He is the only Grandfather my kids new and my nephew Dustin. Also both my brothers kids. We all camped together good times. I don't care what was broken he could fix it. Extremely intelligent he will be missed by many RIP

Kris Bettcher - March 02, 2023 at 02:42 AM

MM

“ Great grandpa with Lenox. We love you!

marissa mainville - February 26, 2023 at 06:16 PM

MM

“ Roger with his grandchild Lenox ❤️ we love you

marissa mainville - February 26, 2023 at 06:13 PM

AR

“ I met « mon oncle » the first time when I was a young adult. For many years, my father Léo tried to find his father Edward Rainville who moved to the States. And one day looking for Rainville, they found an Edward Mainville. It was his father/my grandfather. My parents went to Detroit to meet their new family. Since that time uncle Roger is in our life. He visited us many times helping my dad to work on the summer camp. The 4-5 last times, he came to our home, we visited places of his choice. I talked to him a month a go. I will miss his phone calls.

Our deepest sympathy to the family.

André and Nicole Rainville

André Rainville - February 25, 2023 at 01:01 PM

AA

“ While lost for words of learning of Roger's passing, we were sad to hear this news. Over 34 years of being Roger's next door neighbor, we will certainly miss his smiling face and all the chats we shared. Roger was the thoughtful, kind and warm neighbor that anyone would welcome with open arms. He would plow our driveway of snow, we would cut his grass without any exchange of words. That's the understanding that caring neighbors had. He would always acknowledge you with a smile and a wave of his hand as he passed by you. The world is in need of more people like Roger Mainville. We'll miss seeing him working in his shop, on his land or just tinkering on his pickup truck. He certainly is going to be missed. We are sending our heartfelt condolences to his loving family. Rest in peace our friend. Steve and Adele

Adele Albright - February 24, 2023 at 09:30 AM