“ To my father, "The Shark"!

My love for you pours over and memories ever lasting, your love for family and music has transcended on through your children and grandchildren. You were so full of life and humor, jokes and creativity that let us know you lived life to the the fullest in which we enjoyed immeasurably. Your fatherly love and guidance has lead me and all of your children to be successful in life. You love for music, particularly jazz, has inspired many of us to enjoy music or become musicians; your love for automobiles as well, myself and my son in-particularly. Your encouragement, enthusiasm, positive spirit, and pride in God and country has driven me to be very successful in life, in family and in marriage; I owe my success in life to your mentorship. I will forever miss our conversations, but will ever internalize our memories. I look forward to the day we are together again. May God bless you and be with you now and forever.

Love, Ron, Karen, Ashley, Ron III
