“ Bev and family we're so sorry for your loss of Ronald. Wow there are so many great memories we have of Ron . Camping, canoeing, bon fires. We always had an adventure with Ron . Hi family was like our blood family . We always laughed about one thing or another he either did, or said . Fred grew up with and lived with Ronald and his family . Our son Derek enjoyed going out in his back yard practicing shooting. Man we're going to miss him . I know Pops and Louise are glad to have him back with them and brother Jimmy . I just wish it wasn't so soon . He's gone but will never be forgotten. Love and prayers from Fred ,Corinne , and Derek
