“ God do I miss my grandfather I use to take him out every weekend to get food and listen to him talk and hear so many stories of him like swimming across st clair sticking his feet in cow poo when it was fresh cause it was warm I loved being with him whe I was younger I spent almost all summer with him doing whatever I could to be by him growing up as a child I never went to school as I wanted to leave and be with my Grandfather and go hang with him at the bar or help him paint the basement I can remember him teaching me it's okay for a man to pee behind the garage as long as no one sees I love you grandpa I'm gonna miss you so much
