“ My heartaches losing such a great family friend! Rosa’s smile was contagious and her love for her children was so evident. You started out as my neighbor then became a great friend, I will miss you dearly. I pray to the lord that he takes care of you now and you are surrounded by light and love, no longer in darkness and despair. I will see you again my dear friend, until then we will celebrate your life here on earth. Love - The Vajda’s

“ I worked with Rosa at Wright's plastic for a year. And in that year she brought so much joy and laughter. I wouldn't leave work unless I got to talk to her. She will always be missed. R.I.h Rosa.

“ The tattoo is my mother's (Rosa Kelly) handwriting. This also includes her birth to death. My mother loved everyone. She was always so happy for everyone, but never happy for herself. She was a outgoing person. Her laugh brought joy to the world along with her smile and beauty. We used to lay in one or the others bed when we got bored and just cuddled and talked. And she treated my friends as if they were family. She never judged me for the things I did and always showed me support. She was there for me every time I was alone. She always assured me I'll always have her. I miss the crap out of her. I can't stand to look at her room. We were getting evicted and it all just happened so fast. Now I no longer have her by my side, even though I know she will always be with me. I love you mom.

“ Rosa was the best friend that I had she was there when you need it her. I will never forget the hug she gave me. And how she treated my youngest daughter while we worked to. Now she is an angel in heaven with my mom and dad
