“ Dennis Ginn lit a candle in memory of Rosalie S. Aisthorpe

“ Dear Rose, I have so many fond memories of you. It was always so nice to visit your place. A friendly, relaxed atmosphere with lots of joking and banter. I'll miss meeting you when I come to visit Lance. I know he can be a handful, but he's got a heart of gold that he inherited from you. Instead of flowers I made a contribution to the Alzheimers association in your name. May you rest in peace. Love from Dennis ❤️

“ Growing up as best friends of Andrea Anthony, Gramma was a big part of some really great memories for us. My husband Be and myself loved and respected her very much. We both have memories of what a blessing she was. For me she was like an adopted grandma at times. Andie and I would often be in her home having sandwiches and a laugh or a chat Her smile would light up a room and her sweetness will never be forgotten by anyone who knew her. The kindness she had always shown my husband and I growing up will always be a cherished memory. No one will ever forget the heart that she openly gave when her loved ones were in her presence. Her home was a peaceful place where we never once felt uncomfortable. Between sharing my sandwich crust with her little dog, to laughing at a story she told, to asking her serious advice she was always a comforting soul. I once went to her house to ask where my best friend Andie had moved to once when we lost touch and she gave me a hug and made me feel welcomed even though a few years had passed since I saw her last. We miss her, but we know without a doubt she is now in the presence of our Lord. She is no longer suffering here and for that we have joy despite our sadness. We will see you soon, grandma. Love Ben and Jenn. Please give Jesus a big hug from us and enjoy your Heavenly home

“ My family calls me 'Andie' and she'd always sing to me, "Andie pandie puddin pie, kissed the boys and made em cry" lol .. She was the glue that held our family together. She was the best Gramma anyone could've ever asked for, it was such an honor to have been her granddaughter! Rest in Heavenly peace, Gramma, love and miss you so much!
