“ I knew Mr. Lewis when I was a kid and teenager growing up in Croswell in the 1950s and 1960s. He was my neighbor, and he was the caring and devoted father of my life-long friend, Larry Lewis. In addition to being a long time resident of Croswell, Mr. Lewis was also an active member of the Croswell Volunteer Fire Department for many years. I knew him as a quiet, reserved, respected, and a very respectful man. He was a very good man who lived a good and long life. RIP Mr. Lewis.
