“ I realize i may not have been in the best standings with roy because of questionable decisions ive made but i have nothing but good things to say about him he loved everyone in his own way he was always a sarcastic clown and its one of the things i liked most of about him he loved his bike and his family and everyone knew that and im forever greatful i got the chance to be apart of that for however short of time it was well worth.

PS. I hope they enjoy your cooking up there as much as i always have R.I.P.

“ Its been almost 33 years since I first met you. We had good and bad times, but ultimately have always been there for each other if we needed. We shared our life long ago, and out of that came 2 beautiful daughters and 5 perfect grandchildren. I really didn' t expect your passing to effect me as much as it has. I have been on an emotional roller coaster since I got the call. I hurt for everyone you left behind especially your children and the grand children, some too young to ever remember what a wonderful grandfather you were. I pray for strength for Andria as well as your mom, we all know a parent should never have to mourn the loss of a child, and for all of your children and grandchildren to get through this loss and to always remember the good times. May you finally be pain free and at peace. You will be truly missed by many that loved you. 💔

“ I only was able to meet Roy a few months ago. I am so very blessed to have met him as clearly noted Sarah is a Daddys girl and how Roy raised Sarah to be the caring, honest, respectful woman she is today. You will be missed by many. I am confident there will be times when you are near. Loving prayers for the entire family as each learns to live. Roy is in no more pain. May God bless you and keep you near during this difficult time.
