“ Russell,
my husband came into my life 24 years ago and accepted me and our daughter's he showed me what real love can be and he was my best friend. I have our Lord Jesus to thank for being in our marriage and brought our family closes the best he could. At first, it was hard but we pulled through it and the Lord was still a part of our family. My husband loved his children and grandchildren and spending time with them. I will miss my husband Russell so very much he was the Love of my life and my best friend. I would love to thank Our Lord Jesus for loving Russell. I will never forget his hugs and his kiss and how he could not stop loving me and miss I will dearly miss him. I love you Russell and always will. I love you my beloved

Russell my husband, the love ❤️ of my life and my best friend was a Minister. And we would have Bible studies together and we would enjoy the fellowship. The Lord Jesus was in our marriage 🙏❤️ for 23 years. We were together for 24 years, we dated for a year before we were married. I will always love my husband 💕.
