“ ~The past is the past...and yet, regardless, it is also very much alive in our hearts. It is very much a part of who we are. For who are we but the culmination of all our experiences and memories and perceptions...the spirit is the inner record of all our experiences, good, bad, positive, hurtful..who are we but the choices that we make right now, at this very moment ! the way we see things, and how we respond to everything that happens around us, and within us...~?

“ "To Those I Love"
(by Isla Paschal Richardson)

*If I should ever leave you whom I love
To go along the Silent Way, grieve not
Nor speak of me with tears
but laugh and talk
Of me as if I were beside you there (I'd come - I'd come could I but find a way!}
And when you hear a song
or see a bird
I loved, please do not let the thought of me
Be sad...For I am
Loving you just as
I always have...
You were so good to me!
There are so many things
I wanted still
To do - so many things
to say to You...
Remember that I Did not fear.. It was Just leaving you
that was so hard to face...
We cannot see Beyond
But this I know:*

*I loved you so - 'twas heaven
Here with You!*

Blessing Lorr and Family

“ Our sympathy goes out to Deanna and girls. We were blessed to have met and had Russ as a fellow classmate back in the 50's. Always enjoyed the conversations with Russ. We looked forward to seeing Russ almost daily last fall [ while being treated for medical issues] and discussing the good old days. Russ always had a good conversation or comment and made our day for us . He will be missed and always remembered. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Art & Sharon Jones, East China, MI

“ My wife and I send our sympathies from Fort Wayne, Indiana, to you sister Deanna and to nieces Debbie and Yvonne. We only learned today about Russ. In our last phone conversation you said he was doing well battling his medical issues. We are sorry we did not know sooner and wish you God's blessing in dealing with your loss. Please know we are thinking of you. Brian & Darlene Hackett

“ I went to primary school and junior and senior high with Russ. Both of us were graduates in the class of 1958. As often happens, I did not see him much after I left Algonac, BUT, it was always fun to "catch up" at class reunions. Russ was one of the "good guys" who was a loving husband, father and grand father. My condolences to family and special friends.....May he rest in eternal peace! Bill Richardson.

“ My condolence to Deanna and the girls. Russ is my cousin as his Dad Russell and my mother Helen Mitchell are brother and sister. Living thousands of miles apart for 73 years I rarely saw him; however, I remember he was extremely talented with his hands and could build or repair anything. It is no surprise he was with the cable company as he also had highly technical skills. Rest in peace Russ and may the eternal light shine upon you always. Cousin Dave Baragar, Tampa, Florida

“ *No little girl could have asked for a better Daddy. No adult daughter could have had a better Father. He was always there for his family. When times got tough, he got tougher. When times were good, he made sure we had as much fun as we could have. He worked very hard to see we never went with out. Even to the point of selling his precious horses. He always stood up for what he believed in and he taught us to do the same. He taught us to have faith in not only ourselves but in the higher power of our choice. He did not judge what path we chose. He taught us to think of others and to be kind and compassionate. He taught us to give to others if it was at all possible, if they were in need. If we could not; then to pray for them. He taught us to be tolerant of others and of their different ways. To be open minded to new things and to consider changes. I could go on forever all the things I learned about life from my Father. But, the most important thing that I ever learned from my Dad...
Unconditional LOVE!!*

I will miss you forever Daddy. Rest Well. Rest in Peace. Enjoy visiting and being joined with the loved ones that went before you, and welcomed you home.

*Love Forever
Your Daughter
