Just came into town to visit. I was so sorry to hear about my dear old friend Ruth that I have known since we were in the 5th grade at Finney School in Detroit. So many memories. Ruth always had a mischievous spirit about her. Her Irish heritage showed through bright and clear as she was the life of the party. There will always be only one Ruth Ann. Our sincere condolences to her mother, sisters and brother; as well as her two wonderful daughters and their families. May she rest in peace.
