“ I have so many Memories of my sister Ruth Ann. I loved her smile and the Funny things she did to make people laugh. She loved to act Silly. She Loved her Kids and always talked about them when I called. She would talk for an hour and tell me all about them. She as so Proud of them. I still had her number on my kitchen table to call her again... when I got the call that she was gone. It is hard to believe that she was gone so quickly. My she rest in Peace until we meet again. God Bless her.
