“ I met Sam and Mary in 2022, when I was running a cat rescue. I was called by animal control to go to their place to help them with many many outdoor feral cats that they had running around. Many of them were abandoned, and they multiplied fast. This was NOT Sam or Mary’s fault. As we all know, vet bills are expensive. Sam and Mary ADORED their cats. They loved them so incredibly much. Sam would go into debt trying to keep all of the cats fed and happy. Sam and Mary ended up helping me trap and spay/neuter every single cat on the property, there ended up being 72 cats total outside. We recently brought Sam and Mary’s indoor cat Squeeks into our home. He is a very sweet boy and we will cherish him for life. Sam was an amazing human being. We built a strong relationship in the time we all knew each other. In secret i would call Sam “Uncle Sam”. His strong will and hard work to help all of those cats will never ever be forgotten and neither will he or mary. They were very very special people and I wish I had met them much sooner than I did. I enjoyed my time with them. Below is a picture of a card Mary and Sam sent me and their beloved cat Squeeks. God bless you all

“ Sad to hear. He was a great guy. Him and my husband Kevin visited each other all the time. I know he loved going morel mushroom hunting and asparagus. I would stop and talk to him every time I saw him. He will be missed.
